

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK

Yosemite National Park is open 24 hours per day, 365 days per

The Bay Area is a whole world in its self, but let yourself wander into the glory that is Yosemite. It is roughly 4 hours away. Ditch your daily routine for an incredible getaway. Connect with nature as you immerse with a variety of activities and sight seeing opportunities. There is no limit to how you can experience the exceptional wonders of this great national park.

DAY TRIP TIPS:

Leave the Bay Area before 5:00am and return by sunset.

The travel time is approximately 4 hours to arrive at the park's entrance.

Avoid visiting on weekends or holidays, otherwise, plan to leave the Bay Area by 5:00 AM.

Pack in case you decide to spend the night (you might be too exhausted to drive back home).

Pack your own lunch, snacks or eat before arriving to the Yosemite area. Then, eat again after leaving. This can save time and money.

Do not leave food inside the car. This can attract bears. Food dispensers are available near camping grounds to store food.

Enjoy Yosemite as much as possible. Have fun and be safe.
